

Water Development and Conservation Plan Template

DRAFT: March 2, 2009

Executive Summary

- 1. Introduction: A Vision for the Future of Water Resources in Georgia — overview of the background and purpose of the State Water Plan and how it relates to the development of regional WDCPs
- 2. The _____ Water Planning Region — provides an understanding of the unique characteristics within the water planning region, the regional WDCP planning process, and the vision for the water planning region
- 3. Water Resources of the _____ Region — outline results of the current resource assessments
- 4. Population, Employment, and Land Cover Forecasts — summary of the forecasts by time period along with a brief summary of the methodology
- 5. Water and Wastewater Forecasts — summary of the forecasts by time period along with a brief summary of the methodology
- 6. Comparing Resource Capacities and User Needs — compare resources capacities and needs and identify future water use challenges that influence the selection of water management practices
- 7. Meeting the Challenge: Water Management Practices — selection of water management practices that address any gaps identified during the resource comparisons with a focus on sustainable water use
- 8. Implementation of Water Management Practices — responsibilities and schedules for implementing water management practices
- 9. Monitoring WDCP Progress — Description of evaluating compliance and criteria for future revisions.